- b. On 6 September, a bomber unit consisting of 28 Il-28's, and eight MiG-15's and MiG-17's was observed in the Luckenwalde area.
- c. Air activity at the Doeberitz airfield involved only Il-10's with yellow markings. Il-10's with blue markings were no longer observed at the Doeberitz airfield. Yellow markings were formerly observed in the Brandenburg-Briest area.

4. Personnel Strength:

The Weisse Stadt restricted area, near the Oranienburg airfield, housed about 1000 soldiers wearing black-bordered blue epaulets. Major General Mashuyek (fmu) was also allegedly there.¹

5. Construction Projects:

Work forces, employed on 20 August, included the following approximations: 870 at Allstedt; 420 at Garz; 680 at Gross Doelln; and 40 at Tutow.

6. Shipments:

Between 28 August and 2 September, the following rail fuel shipments were made to Werneuchen: 50 tank cars from Ruhland (Schwarzheide), and 22 tank cars from Frankfurt/Oder.

7. Miscellaneous:

The East German Lufthansa allegedly started operation on 15 September. Six Soviet commercial aircraft are to be delivered to the Lufthansa in the near future; an additional six are to be delivered by 1 April 1956. One Soviet aircraft captain is to be assigned to each German crew.

Comment: Mashuyek is presumably the Commander of the Oranienburg Bomber Division which includes bomber regiments at Oranienburg, Gross Doelln, and Rothenburg.
